

Sex and porn issues are on the rise.

With Internet pornography and chat rooms available 24/7, more people struggle with compulsive and problematic sexual behaviors. Patients who present with persistent depression and anxiety, erectile dysfunction at a young age, or a pattern of unhealthy relationships may be at risk. Help is here. Kavod Center has Certified Sexual Addiction Therapists* and a good track record of helping these individuals and their partners get past the struggle and on to the healing.
